Advertising opportunities in Headwaters magazine

The Colorado Foundation for Water Education will accept a limited number of paid advertisements in Headwaters magazine. To limit the impact to educational content, CFWE is limiting advertisements to two pages per issue. The next issue, on the Yampa, White and Green basins, will be out in late January. If you would like to reserve advertising space in this issue, they need a commitment by January 15. For information on circulation, rates and ad specifications, visit MediaKit2010.pdf.

CFWE seeks stories for upcoming Headwaters magazine on "the grassroots"

The Colorado Foundation for Water Education will focus its Summer 2010 edition of Headwaters magazine on the work of grassroots watershed groups in Colorado. CFWE is seeking stories focused on the successes, challenges and history of watershed groups and citizen action in the state. If you have an idea for a relevant story, please submit it to Nicole Seltzer at nseltzer@cfwe.org by Friday, January 29. Groups whose stories are selected will receive up to 100 copies of Headwaters to distribute to their stakeholders.

EPA FR Notice for Public Input and Listening Sessions for Stormwater Rulemaking

EPA would like to announce its plans to open a public input period and hold listening sessions to inform a rulemaking to strengthen national stormwater regulations by establishing a program to reduce stormwater discharges from new development and redevelopment and making other regulatory improvements. EPA is issuing a second FR Notice this week which requests input from the public on preliminary considerations for modifying and/or supplementing EPA's stormwater regulations. In addition, the notice provides the opportunity for the public to voluntarily provide information on current stormwater control practices that retain stormwater on-site including design, performance, operation and maintenance, cost, and benefit information. The FR Notice, registration information, and information about the listening sessions are posted to the following website: (www.epa.gov/npdes/stormwater/rulemaking). The listening session for Colorado will be held at the EPA Region 8 Office, 1595 Wynkoop Street, Denver, CO 80202-1129 on January 25, from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. If you have questions about the Notice and/or the rulemaking, please contact Holly Galavotti at galavotti.holly@epa.gov or (202) 564-1489.

Funding Opportunities List:

The Colorado Watershed Assembly has compiled a list of governmental and non-governmental funding sources for restoration projects and organizational capacity building. The list can be found on our website.

Colorado River District expands grant program for water supply projects in 2010

Beginning December 1, 2009, the Colorado River District will be accepting grant applications for projects that protect, enhance or develop water resources in their 15-county area within the Colorado River Basin; this includes all tributary watershed areas in Colorado, except the San Juan River basin. The application deadline is Jan. 29, 2010. For the complete details, visit http://www.crwcd.org/page_193.

National Fish and Wildlife Foundation: Five-Star Restoration Matching Grants Program

This program supports community-based wetland, riparian, and coastal habitat restoration projects throughout the United States. Grants ranging from $10,000 to $40,000 are provided to projects that build diverse partnerships and foster natural resource stewardship through education, outreach, and training activities. Partnerships should include at least five organizations (nonprofit organizations, government agencies, educational institutions, businesses, etc.) that contribute to project success through funding, land, workforce support, technical support, and/or other in-kind services. Projects that can leverage the amount of funds requested with significant cash or in-kind contributions from project partners are given priority. The application deadline is February 11, 2010. For full details, click here.

EPA Five-Star Restoration Program

This program provides modest financial assistance on a competitive basis to support community-based wetland, riparian, and coastal habitat restoration projects that build diverse partnerships and foster local natural resource stewardship through education, outreach and training activities. Proposals for Five Star Restoration Grants are due in mid-February each year. For eligibility and application instructions, visit <http://www.epa.gov/wetlands/restore/5star/>.

EPA seeks applications for Environmental Community Grants

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency is making $2 million available in 2010 to reduce pollution at the local level through the Community Action for a Renewed Environment (CARE) program. CARE is a community-based program that works with county and local governments, tribes, non-profit organizations and universities to help the public understand and reduce toxic risks from numerous sources. Applications for the CARE grants are due March 9, 2010. EPA will conduct three Webcasts to answer questions from prospective applicants about the application process on Feb. 2, 23, and 26 from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. More information about the grants: <http://www.epa.gov/care/>. If you have questions, you may contact Dennis O'Connor at occonnor.dennis@epa.gov or 202-343-9213.

Colorado Watershed Restoration Program Grant Cycle

The Watershed Restoration Program objective is to provide planning, engineering, and construction services for watershed/stream restoration studies and projects. The Program also provides support for flood mitigation. Special consideration is reserved for planning and project efforts that integrate multi-objectives in restoration and flood mitigation. This may include projects and studies designed to restore stream channels, provide habitat for aquatic and terrestrial species, restore riparian areas, reduce erosion, reduce flood hazards, and increase the capacity to utilize water. For guidance and application instructions, visit <http://cwc.state.co.us/WatershedProtectionFloodMitigation/Watershed/>.
