

SAVE THE DATE
Arkansas River Watershed
Tamarisk Workshop
Tuesday, March 30, 2010
Southeastern Colorado Water Conservancy District
31717 United Avenue, Pueblo, CO 81001

Come and network with fellow tamarisk warriors and learn new methods for control and restoration

AGENDA

8:00 - Welcome and Introductions

8:15 - Five Action Steps for the Arkansas and Purgatoire Rivers
Strategic Plans

8:30 - Weed Manager Session

Update from managers on current projects within the watershed

- Control methods
- Restoration plans and activities
- Monitoring programs
- Costs associated with control, restoration, and monitoring
- Lessons learned

10:15 - Break

10:30 - Resume Weed Manager Session

12:00 - Lunch will be provided

12:30 - Update on mapping current and completed projects within the watershed

1:00 - Overview of Tamarisk Biocontrol Implementation in the Arkansas River Watershed, Dr. Dan Bean, Colorado Dept. of Agriculture and Colorado State University

2:00 - Break

2:15 - Tamarisk Control Methods and controlling secondary invaders, Dr. Scott Nissen, Colorado State University Weed Department

3:15 - Best Management Practices for Riparian Restoration, Dr. Anna Sher, University of Denver and Denver Botanic Gardens

PLEASE RSVP FOR LUNCH: 719-948-2023